

Contents

List of Contributors	page x
Preface	xi
GPIL – German Practice in International Law	xii
Table of Cases	xiv
Table of German Statutes	xviii
Table of European Legislation	xix
Table of Treaties	xx
List of Abbreviations	xxiii
1 Foundations and Functions of International Law	1
International Law in General	1
Sources of International Law	2
Germany Finally Comes Clean About the Legal Status of the JCPoA: No More Than Soft Law	2
2 States and Their Organs	8
Territorial Sovereignty	8
Legal Consequences of Germany’s Non-recognition of the Russian Annexation of Crimea	8
Germany Goes Back on Earlier Statements on the International Legal Status of Nagorno-Karabakh	19
Germany Tells Thailand’s King Not to Rule from Its Soil	24
Germany Warns Israel that Annexation of Any Part of the Occupied Palestinian Territories Would Represent ‘A Most Serious Violation of International Law’	27
Political Independence	34
China Accuses Germany of Interference in Internal Affairs for Taking Measures in Response to New Hong Kong National Security Law	34
The Missing Taiwanese Flag or the Flag ‘As a Symbol of Statehood’	43
Statehood and Recognition	45
For Germany the ‘State of Palestine’ is not a State Party of the Rome Statute of the International Criminal Court	45
Germany Confirms Non-recognition of ‘Nagorno-Karabakh Republic’	53
Germany Supports Taiwan’s Participation in the WHA as an Observer: Putting Policy Before Principle	57

Organs of the State and Their Status	65
State Succession	66
3 Inter-State Political and Economic Relations and Transactions	67
Diplomatic and Consular Relations	67
Diplomacy in Times of COVID-19: Germany Closes its Pyongyang Embassy in Response to North Korea's Drastic Measures to Fight the Pandemic	67
Germany's Call on Iraq to Protect the US Embassy in Baghdad: The Difference between a Legal and a General Interest in Compliance with Article 22 VCDR	79
Germany Denounces Arrest of UK Ambassador to Iran	82
Not Much of a Welcome: The Delayed Agrément of the German Ambassador to Poland	85
Summoning or 'Inviting' an Ambassador: Is There a Difference?	88
Iran Condemns German Ambassador's Tweets as Interference in Internal Affairs	91
German Embassy in Bangkok Asks for Protection	94
The Pitfalls of Co-locating Diplomatic Premises	96
Indonesia Declares German Diplomat Persona Non Grata	98
Diplomatic and Consular Protection	100
Unilateral Coercive Measures Short of the Use of Force	101
Limits to the Implementation of the Libyan Arms Embargo	101
Germany Takes Three and a Half Years to Enforce UN Sanctions Against North Korea	103
Law of Treaties	113
Germany Appeals to Iran to Comply with Its Treaty Obligations Not to Execute Persons Who Were Minors at the Time of the Crime	113
Breaches of International Law 'In a Very Specific and Limited Way': A Remarkable Admission by a German Chancellor	116
International Economic Law	119
Germany's Unusual Proposals to Disqualify the Tribunal in the Vattenfall Arbitration	119
Germany Favours Substantial Reform of the Energy Charter Treaty	126
4 State Jurisdiction and Immunities	132
Jurisdiction of the State	132
Germany Releases Iranian in Prisoner Swap Rather Than Extraditing Him to the United States	132
Germany Considers Further US Sanctions Against Nord Stream 2 an Encroachment on Its Sovereignty	135
State Immunity	142
'Once a Trader, Always a State': The Federal Constitutional Court Classifies Greek Debt Restructuring Measures as Acta Iure Imperii	142
Germany Not Answerable in US Courts for Alleged Colonial Genocide	146
5 State Responsibility and Liability	157
State Responsibility	157
Germany Mistakenly Attributes Acts by the Houthi Rebels to the State of Yemen	157
Responsible Until Proven Otherwise? Germany Holds Russia Responsible for the Use of a Chemical Weapon in the Poisoning of Alexei Navalny	161

Contents

vii

	The Federal Parliament's Scientific Research Services on Claims Against China for Damages Incurred Due to the Coronavirus Pandemic	171
	Malta Apologising for Ambassador Comparing German Chancellor to Hitler: A Rare Example of a Formal State Apology?	179
	State Liability	181
6	Antarctica, Sea, Air and Space	182
	Antarctica	182
	Law of the Sea	183
	Germany Counters China's Maritime Claims in the South China Sea	183
	'Like Pirates': Turkey Accuses Germany of Illegally Boarding its Merchant Vessel on the High Seas	190
	Germany Calls on Turkey to Respect International Law When Conducting Seismic Surveys in the Eastern Mediterranean	204
	Germany Joins the UK-led Global Ocean Alliance	209
	Air and Space Law	210
	Germany Opposes Russian Initiatives on the Prevention of the Placement of Weapons in Outer Space	210
7	Individuals, Their Human Rights and Their International Criminal Responsibility	214
	Position of the Individual	214
	Human Rights	215
	Ukrainian Extradition Request Denied by German Court Because of Likely Violation of the International Minimum Standard of Human Rights Protection	215
	Germany Continues to Raise Concerns over Human Rights of the Uyghurs and Demands that China Close the Detention Camps in Xinjiang	218
	International Refugee Law	222
	Nationality and Statelessness	223
	German Court Confirms That There Is No Palestinian State and No Palestinian Nationality	223
	International Terrorism	227
	Federal Prosecutor General Accuses Russia of State-ordered Murder	227
	International Health Law	230
	International Criminal Law	231
	Sentencing a Member of the Syrian Opposition for War Crimes Against Persons	231
	Federal Public Prosecutor General Declines to Bring Charges Against Members of the Federal Government for Aiding the Killing of Iranian General Soleimani	233
	Handing Over of Six-year-old Boy to Islamic State Training Camp in Syria as War Crime of Enlisting Children	238
	First Conviction for Aiding and Abetting a Crime Against Humanity by Enslavement	242
	Higher Regional Court of Stuttgart Convicts an IS Member of War Crimes	244
8	Natural Resources and the Environment	246
	International Environmental Law	246
	International Watercourses	247

9	The United Nations and Other International Organisations	248
	United Nations	248
	UN Security Council Reform: A Story of Growing German Frustration	248
	Germany Fails to Integrate Climate Security Concerns into the Work of the Security Council	254
	Germany: The UN Headquarters in New York Must Be Accessible to All Member States	263
	Raising False Expectations: Germany's Misleading Take on UN Security Council Resolution 2510 (2020)	265
	Germany Opposes US Interpretation of UN Security Council Resolution 2331 (2015)	269
	Blocking and Inviting Civil Society Briefers to the UN Security Council	275
	Germany Accuses Russia and China of Obstructing the Implementation of Security Council Resolutions	280
	Germany Faces Difficulties as Chair of the Libya Sanctions Committee	285
	Germany as an Almost Permanent Member of the Economic and Social Council	289
	Germany Comes in for Serious Criticism of Its Handling of the Afghanistan File in the UN General Assembly	291
	Russia Accuses Germany of Bringing 'Dissent, Division and Negative Emotion' to the Security Council	294
	China: 'The Performance of Germany Has Failed the Security Council'	319
	Taking Stock: A Review of Germany's Two Years on the Security Council	328
	Some Critical Observations on Germany's Security Council Membership	336
	Other International Organisations	342
	The Bornholm Declaration: Another Example of Germany's Support of Youth Participation in International Organisations?	342
10	Use of Force, Arms Control and Disarmament	344
	Use of Force	344
	The US Killing of Iranian General Qasem Soleimani: Of Wrong Trees and Red Herrings, and Why the Killing May Be Lawful After All	344
	Germany 'Strongly Condemns' Iranian Missile Attacks on US Bases in Iraq	358
	Germany Continues Aerial Refuelling of Anti-IS Coalition over Syria and Refines the Right of Sustainable Self-Defence	359
	Armed Conflict and International Humanitarian Law	361
	German Federal Court of Justice Reaffirms That There is No Justification in International Law for Attacks by the Kurdistan Workers' Party	361
	German Government on Foreign Troop Presence in Syria	365
	Germany Goes Nineteenth Century with New Statement on Law of Occupation: On the Status of US Forces in Syria	368
	Germany Considers Israeli Settlement Activities in the Occupied Palestinian Territories 'Illegal under International Law'	370
	A Drone Is a Drone Is a Drone	378
	Federal Constitutional Court Affirms That Only States Can Bring Claims for Compensation for Violations of International Humanitarian Law	381
	Federal Administrative Court Rules That the United States May Continue to Use Its Air Base in Southern Germany for Lethal Drone Strikes in Yemen	386
	Arms Control and Disarmament	391

	Contents	ix
	Germany Critical of New US Anti-Personnel Landmine Policy	391
	Germany Counts and Condemns North Korean Illegal Missile Tests	394
11	International Disputes and Their Settlement	396
	Peaceful Settlement of Disputes	396
	International Court of Justice	397
	Annex 1 Notable Statements on International Law by Germany in 2020	398
	Annex 2 International Agreements Concluded by Germany in 2020	510
	Index	527